

Profile

Kaplan Blumberg provides its clients with legal services based on a heritage of experience of almost 50 years. The Firm prides itself on the caliber of staff that it attracts - and keeps. Relationships are maintained over decades.

Our greatest asset is the fact that being a relatively small firm (although our staff complement numbers approximately 40 people), we are in a position to interact face to face with our clients and maintain personal contact.

As a service to our clients - we bring you a monthly law.news newsletter filled with current and very relevant information - click on the image below to launch the latest newsletter.
